

Site Topology

The site is relatively flat generally, with an elevated treated water reservoir covered by grass in the Eastern part of the site, with a change in level of approximately 7m.

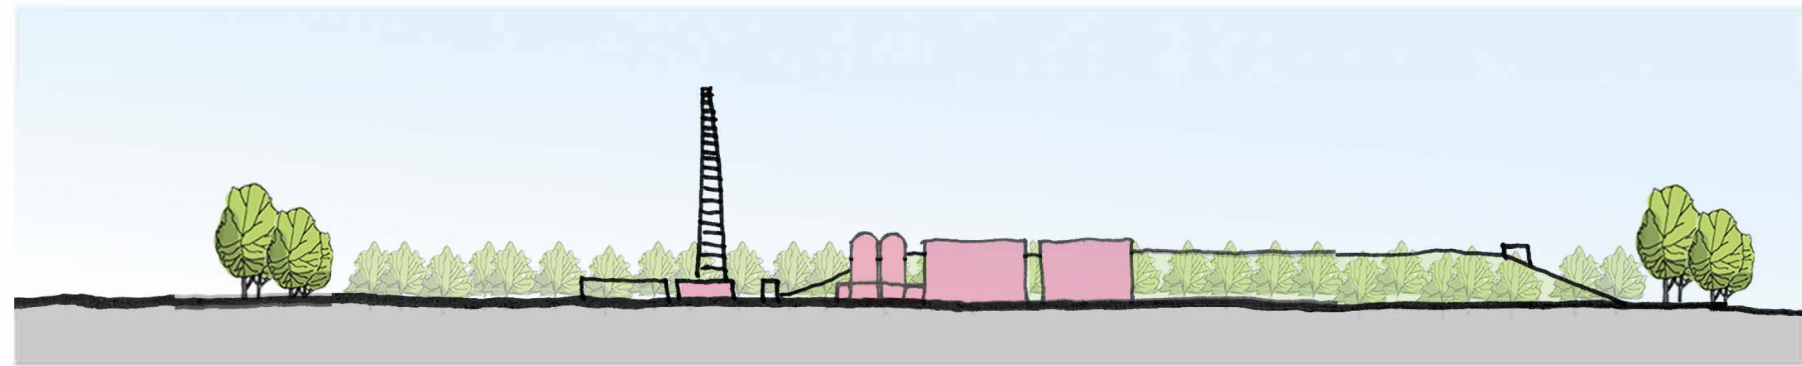

There are a number of industrial type buildings including the existing Booster pump station in the North-East of the site. There is also equipment associated with the reservoir and a telecommunications mast which constitutes a focal point in the local landscape. The existing facilities are generally enclosed with perimeter fencing.

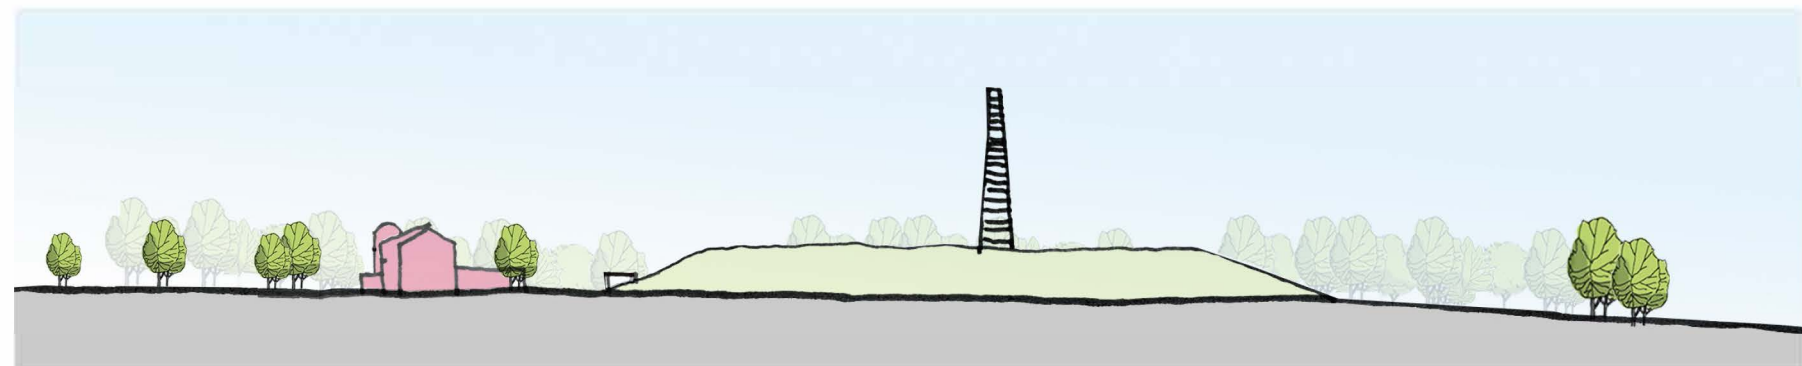

01 | Existing Site Section looking East.

02 | Existing Site Section Looking North.

01 | Proposed Site Section looking East with Outline Design massing indicated.

02 | Proposed Site Section Looking North with Outline Design massing indicated.